

We will rack you!

As a medium-sized company, founded in 1979, we are one of the European market leaders in racking and storage equipment. In Switzerland, the brand OHRA stands as the synonym for cantilever racks for the storage of long goods.

In the course of the expansion of our activities we are looking for a sales representative (m/w/d)

in full-time employment or as an independent agent (m/f).

Your activities range from sales, customer service and order processing to the development of new markets.

You think entrepreneurially, can work independently as part of a team, are creative with your own ideas and looking for an interesting challenge. A command of the French language would be an asset.

We offer you a multi-faceted position in our forward-thinking, dynamic company with a strong international orientation.

If you have a technical/commercial education and proven track record in the sale of investment goods, preferably in the storage or conveyor systems industry, please send us your application, stating your salary expectations and possible starting date, to:
